

DOMINICAN SCHOOL OF PHILOSOPHY & THEOLOGY
MASTER OF ARTS (PHILOSOPHY)
Colloquium Evaluation Form for Non-thesis Option Students

Colloquium Participants. All MAPH students must participate in the Philosophy Colloquium as described in the Student Handbook. Students in the thesis option use their approved thesis proposal as the basis for one presentation to Colloquium participants; non-thesis option students make two presentations based upon a research paper.

Name of Student: _____

Paper Title: _____

COLLOQUIUM COORDINATOR: Please submit this completed form and the graded synthesis paper to the DSPT Registrar.

	Unable to discern or not applicable	Does not meet scholarly standards	Satisfactorily meets scholarly standards	Scholarly standards achieved with excellence
In seminar discussions, the student:
1. Demonstrates adequate knowledge of the philosophical topics under discussion	()	()	()	()
2. Is able to engage contemporary issues	()	()	()	()
3. Is conversant with Thomistic principles/ideas	()	()	()	()
4. Is able to give constructive criticism and feedback to the presentations of other students	()	()	()	()
5. Is able to express ideas clearly	()	()	()	()
In the Colloquium presentation(s), the student:
6. Demonstrates skill in organizing and presenting topics in a clear and focused manner	()	()	()	()
7. Provides materials (handouts) that are clear and helpful for other participants.	()	()	()	()
8. Shows an ability to understand and respond clearly to the comments of other participants	()	()	()	()
9. Shows an ability to understand and respond to differing positions fairly and evenhandedly.	()	()	()	()
10. Is able to show how critiques from the first presentation have informed the final paper	()	()	()	()
11. Shows promise as a future teacher	()	()	()	()

(Please provide additional comments as needed on the reverse or on a separate sheet.)

Grade for Colloquium _____

_____
 Name of Colloquium Coordinator
 (please print)

_____
 Signature of Colloquium Coordinator

_____
 Date