

Dominican School of Philosophy and Theology (DSPT)
Syllabus for HM 1073 Foundations of Preaching
Fall 2020 Tuesdays, 12:40 pm - 3:30 pm, DSPT Chapel (section 1)

Father Bart Hutcherson, O.P., Adjunct Lecturer in Homiletics(DSPT)
Available by appointment., 520.971.2628, frbart@gmail.com

COURSE DESCRIPTION: In this course, we will explore the nature and art of preaching, especially in the homily in liturgical celebrations, as understood by the Catholic Church. This exploration will lead us into a consideration of Scripture (on which all homilies are based) and so to the interpretation of Scripture which allows and enables an engagement with the concrete and actual needs and concerns of the congregation addressed. At the same time, we will explore the skills of public speaking necessary for the art of preaching, such as the appropriate proclamation of Scripture, the elements of rhetoric and the use of preaching aids. (3.0 units)

COURSE MODALITIES: This class will be 15% Zoom (the first 2 lectures) and 85% in person at Saint Albert's Priory. For Zoom portion of the class, each student will need to have access to a computer or other suitable device and the Zoom application. It is preferable (but not required) that each student will access the Zoom platform individually, rather than in a group.

COURSE OUTLINE: The Course will have 4 parts (The number in Parenthesis represents the number of Class Weeks that will be dedicated to that portion of the class):

1. Theology and Spirituality of Preaching (2)
2. The Mechanics of Preaching (2)
3. Practice: Preparing the Homily (5)
4. Practice: Preaching the Homily (5)

PHILOSOPHY: The primary concern of this course is that the student studies, thinks and prays so as to deepen his or her personal appreciation for the act of preaching. Each student is expected to sincerely try to absorb and reflect on what is offered in this course and apply it to their own act of preaching.

COURSE GOALS and INSTITUTIONAL OUTCOMES:

The Expected Outcomes of the DSPT MDiv are as follows:

1. [communication] to communicate simply, accurately, and effectively the theological tradition of the Roman Catholic Church through preaching, teaching, and writing;
2. [evaluation] to analyze, assess, and critique theological perspectives and situations through scriptural, historical, systematic, and pastoral theological methods, and to assist others in doing the same;
3. [application] to apply Catholic teaching and theology, especially as exemplified by St. Thomas Aquinas, to pastoral situations, recognizing both the difficulties and the opportunities they present;

4. [collaboration] to lead and to work collaboratively with others in a just, charitable, and generous manner, respecting the relevant cultural, social, and ecclesial circumstances, all the while maintaining professional, ethical boundaries;
5. [Church-uniting] to foster Church communion, demonstrated through consistent dedication to community life, participation in prayer, and leading others in worship and theological reflection.

As an MDiv course, the goals of this course are in line with those outcomes (the number in parentheses are from the list above). The primary goal of this foundational course is to enable the student to develop the skills necessary to prepare and deliver, daily, a homily on a text of Scripture (1, 2, 3). To this end, the student will learn the necessary skills of preparing the text of Scripture for proclamation so that its meaning is readily grasped and then preparing and delivering a short homily that will encounter the congregation with Jesus who is made present in the proclamation of the Scriptural text (2,3,5). In conjunction with the above goals, the student will be assisted in developing a theology of preaching and a spirituality that will assist his or her Christian ministry (3,4,5). Because of the variations in enrollment and the differing needs of the students, this syllabus may be amended in response to the concrete needs of the students. This Syllabus is provisional!

FORMAT: Lecture, discussion, and practicum. Students will be expected to make presentations of their work and preach several 5 minute homilies. They will also be required to submit papers on various stages of preparing the Scriptures for homilies and on the theological basis for the Catholic understanding of preaching.

INTENDED AUDIENCE: DSPT MDiv students; other graduate-level students admitted with the Instructor's permission, including anyone interested in the nature and practice of preaching according to the Catholic understanding of that charism, clerical and lay.

EXPECTATIONS AND ASSIGNMENTS:

1. During the course the student will develop and present 3-5 (maybe more) homilies. The text of the homily will be due the day before its presentation.
2. After each presentation, the class will critique the act of preaching in a positive way so as to help the presenter improve his or her preaching skills.
3. To assist the students in developing their preaching skills, a lecture on one or more aspects of preaching and its theology/spirituality will be delivered and then discussed in the following class.
4. When necessary, one or more short research papers will be required.
5. At times, a short quiz may be given to ascertain that the students have read and comprehended the required texts.
6. The final grade will depend upon the effort made by the student to improve their preaching skills, class participation, required research papers and any quiz grades.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. ATTENDANCE: Because the student is needed not only to present their own work and critique the work of others, absence for more than 3 classes makes them ineligible for a grade for the course. (10% of grade)

2. PRESENTATION: During the course, the student may be asked to present their work of preparing the homily or a skill assisting their development of the homily either as a paper or oral presentation or both. (10% of grade)
3. PROCLAMATION: Before every homily, the student will be required to proclaim the text of Scripture upon which it is based. (10% of grade)
4. PREACHING: During the course, each student will be expected to prepare and preach several 5 min homilies based on a specific text of Scripture. (50% of grade)
5. CRITIQUE: Every student will be expected to critique the preaching of the other students ... not in order to tear down or embarrass the preacher but to point out ways in which the preacher can improve and grow! (20% of grade)

GRADES:

A summary of grade composition is given in the following table:

Attendance: 10% 2. Papers and presentations: 10% 3. Proclamation of Scripture: 20% 4. Preaching of homilies 50% 5. Critique of other students work 10% - Total 100%

Grading Scale: A=100, A-=97, B+=93, B=90, B-=87, C+=83, C=80, C-=77, D+=73, D=70, F=0.

No late work of any kind will be accepted (except, at my discretion, for very serious reasons). Grading of papers and presentations, proclamations and homilies and critiques are assigned according to the following criteria:

1. Demonstration of a clear and positive understanding of the elements of preaching.
2. Demonstration of a clear grasp of the 'grace of the text of Scripture' as it relates to the concrete need and condition of the people addressed.
3. Demonstration of a positive effort to improve their understanding of the elements of preaching and their ability to prepare and deliver a 5-minute homily.
