

This lecture is free and open to the public

Personhood and the Medieval Imagination

DOMINICAN SCHOOL OF PHILOSOPHY & THEOLOGY

Rev. Emery De Gaál is the Chairperson and Professor of the Department of Dogmatic Theology and Pre-theology at Mundelein Seminary, Illinois. Fr. De Gaál is also an author and a member of several academic societies, such as the Catholic Theological Society of America.

PRESENTED BY: REV EMERY DE GAÁL, PHD

This lecture is an extra-curricular event as part of the Person, Soul, and Consciousness Project. It will cover the theological and philosophical development of the term “Person” or “Personhood” from roughly Leontius, via John of Salisbury, Anselm of Canterbury, Bonaventure, Thomas Aquinas up to Meister Eckhart.

FOR MORE INFO & TO RSVP:

dspt.edu/personhood-imagination

Wednesday, November 29th, 2017, 7:30 pm

DSPT - 2301 Vine Street, Berkeley